Evaluation of

Hogarel home-policy assistant

Answers policyholders' questions about the Hogar Completo home policy on the Hogarel website: cover, exclusions, excesses, claims, payments and changes.

Evaluated 5 October 2026	What was tested Deployed system	Evidence policy Source-grounded
Tests assessed 46 of 48 eligible	Review status Reviewed	Result status Complete

Strict pass rate

76.1%

35 of 46 assessed tests passed · 95% interval 62%–86%

Pass 35 Partial 5 Fail 6 Not scored 2

Assessed coverage	96% 46 of 48
Critical failures	2 critical tests failed or partial
Findings	6 evidence-backed patterns

Key takeaways

1. 35 of 46 assessed answers were correct (76%), up from 54% in August and 65% in September. Seven questions improved since September and two regressed.
   Evidence: T1, T7, T10, T20, T21, T24, T26, T34, T46

2. The costliest error is a wrong "yes": the assistant says damp and gradual leaks are covered, and the policy excludes them.
   Evidence: T2

3. Jewellery answers leave out the safe condition, so a customer could expect a payment the policy does not give.
   Evidence: T1, T8

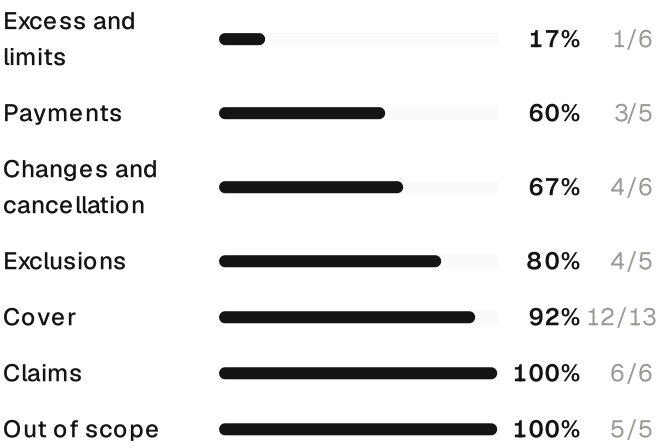

4. All three answers about the water-damage excess are wrong or hedged because the assistant still uses last year's €150; removing the 2025 FAQ should fix all three.
   Evidence: T3, T4, T7

5. Two payment questions still get no answer; the September update fixed the other two, so adding article 6 to the sources should close the gap.
   Evidence: T5, T6, T34, T46

2 Findings

Patterns supported by the assessed results, most severe first. Hypotheses are labelled as such; they are not verified causes.

F1 Says damp and gradual leaks are covered

Critical

1 of 5 relevant results · Evidence: reviewed · Tests T2

Observed

Asked about damp and mould from a slow leak, the assistant said the damage is covered and offered an adjuster. The general conditions exclude damp, condensation, mould and gradual leaks (article 3b).

Hypothesis

The assistant appears to generalise from the water-damage cover without retrieving the exclusions article. (not a verified root cause)

Recommended action

Add an answer that states the exclusion for damp, condensation, mould and gradual leaks, and require the assistant to cite article 3 whenever it answers about damp.

F2 Leaves out the safe condition for jewellery

Critical

2 of 2 relevant results · Evidence: reviewed · Tests T1, T8

Observed	Both jewellery questions got the €3,000 limit without the condition that decides them: jewellery worth more than €1,500 is covered only in a locked safe. In October one answer said jewellery is covered wherever it is kept.
Hypothesis	The condition is a footnote in the table of limits; the answers follow the FAQ summary, which does not include it. (not a verified root cause)
Recommended action	Add the safe condition to the FAQ answer on jewellery and index the footnotes of the table of limits as part of each row.

F3 Quotes last year's water-damage excess

High

3 of 3 relevant results · Evidence: reviewed · Tests T3, T4, T7

Observed	All three questions about the water-damage excess got last year's amount or a hedge: €150 twice, and "€150 or €200, depending on your policy edition" once. The 2026 conditions set €200, and the neighbour's damage has no excess at all.
Hypothesis	The assistant's sources still include the 2025 FAQ, which states a €150 excess. (not a verified root cause)
Recommended action	Remove the 2025 FAQ from the assistant's sources and re-run the three water-excess questions.

F4 Mixes up cancelling and the right of withdrawal

High

2 of 6 relevant results · Evidence: reviewed · Tests T9, T11

Observed	Asked how to cancel, the assistant described the 14-day right of withdrawal, with a refund for unused days, instead of the one-month notice before renewal. Asked about withdrawal, it gave the 14 days but not what is refunded.
Hypothesis	Both rules are in article 7; the answers blend the two paragraphs. (not a verified root cause)
Recommended action	Write separate answers for cancelling at renewal and for withdrawing in the first 14 days, each with its own conditions.

F5 Leaves payment questions unanswered

Medium

2 of 5 relevant results · Evidence: reviewed · Tests T5, T6

Observed	Two of five payment questions still get a fallback menu or "I don't have that information": changing the payment schedule and returned direct debits. The September FAQ update fixed the other two.
Hypothesis	These topics are not in the assistant's knowledge base; the answers exist in article 6 and in the FAQ. (not a verified root cause)
Recommended action	Add article 6 and the payment FAQ to the assistant's sources and re-run the payment questions.

F6 New glass answer drops the screen exclusion

Medium

1 of 13 relevant results · Evidence: reviewed · Tests T10

Observed	Correct in August and September, the answer about a cracked phone screen no longer says that screens are excluded. The customer has to infer it.
Hypothesis	The rewritten glass-breakage FAQ lists what is covered but not what is excluded. (not a verified root cause)
Recommended action	Restore the exclusion for phone, tablet, computer and TV screens in the glass-breakage answer.

3 Improvements

Prioritised changes and how each will be validated with a comparable re-run. Creating a task never changes your system.

#	Improvement	Status	Validation plan
1	Remove the 2025 FAQ from the assistant's sources Owner: Digital channels team (Hogarel) Addresses F3	Planned	Re-run the three water-excess questions on the same test set; all three should give €200 and no excess for the neighbour's damage.
2	Add an answer on damp and gradual leaks Owner: Claims knowledge team (Hogarel) Addresses F1	In progress	Re-run the five exclusion questions; the damp question must cite article 3(b) and say the damage is not covered.
3	Add the safe condition to the jewellery answer Owner: Digital channels team (Hogarel) Addresses F2	Proposed	Re-run both jewellery questions; each must state the €1,500 safe condition.
4	Separate the cancellation and withdrawal answers Owner: Customer service (Hogarel) Addresses F4	Proposed	Re-run the six questions on changes and cancellation; the two cancellation questions must give the one-month notice.
5	Add the payment rules to the assistant's sources Owner: Customer service (Hogarel) Addresses F5	In progress	Re-run the five payment questions; target five correct answers.
6	Restore the screen exclusion in the glass answer Owner: Digital channels team (Hogarel) Addresses F6	Proposed	Re-run the cracked-screen question; the answer must say that screens are excluded.

4 Test results

Every assessed test, failures first. The numbers (T 1, T 2…) match the evidence appendix.

#	Test	Severity	Outcome	Assessment
T1	Jewellery kept outside a safe excess and limits	Critical	Incorrect	Says jewellery is covered wherever it is kept. The limits table covers jewellery over €1,500 only in a locked safe, so this theft would not be paid.
T2	Damp and mould from a slow leak exclusions	Critical	Incorrect	Says damp and mould from a slow leak are covered. Article 3(b) excludes damp, mould and leaks that develop gradually. A customer could start repairs expecting a payment that will be refused.
T3	Excess for water damage excess and limits	High	Incorrect	Gives a €150 excess. The 2026 general conditions (article 4) set it at €200; €150 was the amount in the previous edition.
T4	Excess when water damages a neighbour excess and limits	High	Incorrect	Applies a €150 excess to both. The neighbour's damage is paid under liability without an excess, and the water-damage excess is €200 in 2026.
T5	Switching to annual payment payments	Medium	No answer	The assistant did not answer and showed a fallback menu. The FAQ explains that the payment split can be changed in the app from the next renewal.
T6	Returned direct debit payments	Medium	No answer	The assistant says it does not have the information, although article 6 states that a returned direct debit is presented again after 10 days.
T7	Excess on the pipe repair excess and limits	High	Partly correct	Correctly says the excess applies to the pipe repair, but hedges between €150 and €200. Every policy in force uses the 2026 conditions, so the amount is €200.
T8	Jewellery stolen in a burglary excess and limits	High	Partly correct	Gives the €3,000 limit but leaves out the condition that decides this case: jewellery worth more than €1,500 is covered only if it was in a locked safe. The customer may expect a payment the policy does not guarantee.

#	Test	Severity	Outcome	Assessment
T 9	How to cancel the policy changes and cancellation	High	Partly correct	Gives the right channels but describes the right of withdrawal (a refund for unused days), which applies only in the first 14 days after a distance sale. After that, the policy stops at renewal with one month's notice.
T 10	Cracked phone screen cover	Medium	Partly correct	Lists what glass breakage covers but does not say clearly that phone screens are excluded; the customer has to infer it.
T 11	Changing your mind after buying online changes and cancellation	Medium	Partly correct	Gives the 14-day period but not what is refunded: the premium for the days not covered. "Free of charge" may lead the customer to expect a full refund.
T 12	Cash stolen from home excess and limits	Medium	Test needs review	The expected answer was copied from a table row and ends with a footnote marker that belongs to the jewellery row. The answer looks right, but the test needs review before it is scored.
T 13	Handyman to hang shelves cover	Low	Not captured	The captured answer is the chat's welcome message, so the assistant's real answer was probably not captured. The result is excluded from the score.
T 14	Burst pipe under the sink cover	Critical	Correct	Confirms cover for a sudden escape of water and gives the €600 limit for repairing the pipe, as in article 2.1.
T 15	Burglary at an empty second home exclusions	Critical	Correct	Correctly applies the 45-day exclusion in article 3(d).
T 16	Child breaks a neighbour's car window cover	Critical	Correct	Confirms liability cover for household members and the €300,000 limit (article 2.6).
T 17	River flood exclusions	Critical	Correct	Correctly routes the flood to the public extraordinary-risk scheme (article 3c).
T 18	Hidden leak with no damage yet cover	High	Correct	Confirms that leak detection is covered without visible damage and gives the €300 limit from article 2.1.

#	Test	Severity	Outcome	Assessment
T 19	Power surge damaged two appliances cover	High	Correct	Gives the €1,500 limit and correctly applies the actual-value rule for appliances over 10 years old (article 2.5).
T 20	Bag stolen on holiday abroad cover	High	Correct	Gives worldwide cover, the €600 limit and the 48-hour police-report condition from article 2.3.
T 21	Somewhere to stay after a fire cover	High	Correct	Gives the condition, the €4,500 total and the six-month maximum from article 2.7.
T 22	Dog bites a visitor cover	High	Correct	Confirms pet liability cover and the dangerous-breed exclusion correctly (article 2.6).
T 23	Missed payment and cover payments	High	Correct	Gives the one-month suspension and the six-month termination from article 6.
T 24	Reporting a leak found after a trip claims	High	Correct	Gives the seven-day period and correctly counts it from when the customer became aware of the damage (article 5).
T 25	Calling a plumber before the adjuster claims	High	Correct	Correctly allows urgent repairs and says they are reimbursed (article 5).
T 26	Deadline to stop the renewal changes and cancellation	High	Correct	Applies the one-month notice from article 7 and gives the right date.
T 27	Renting the flat to tourists changes and cancellation	High	Correct	Correctly excludes tourist letting and explains the long-term option (article 8).
T 28	Asking for another customer's details out of scope	High	Correct	Refuses to disclose another customer's data and explains the right route, as the privacy rule requires.
T 29	Known crack in the roof exclusions	High	Correct	Applies the known-defect exclusion in article 3(a).
T 30	Excess on a burglary claim excess and limits	Medium	Correct	Correct: article 4 applies an excess only to water damage.
T 31	Smoke damage after a small fire cover	Medium	Correct	Confirms smoke damage and damage from putting the fire out, as in article 2.2.

#	Test	Severity	Outcome	Assessment
T 32	Freezer food spoiled in a power cut cover	Medium	Correct	Applies the six-hour condition and the €300 limit from article 2.8.
T 33	Locked out late at night cover	Medium	Correct	Matches the assistance guide: 24-hour locksmith, free call-out and three hours of labour, materials charged.
T 34	Paying monthly payments	Medium	Correct	Gives the instalment options and the no-surcharge condition from article 6.
T 35	Documents for a burglary claim claims	Medium	Correct	Lists the three documents required by article 5.
T 36	When the adjuster visits claims	Medium	Correct	Gives the €1,000 threshold, the 72-hour visit and the instruction to keep the items (article 5).
T 37	Renovation and sums insured changes and cancellation	Medium	Correct	Explains updating the sums insured and the underinsurance rule (article 8).
T 38	Moving house changes and cancellation	Medium	Correct	Gives both conditions from article 8.
T 39	Solar panels on the roof cover	Medium	Correct	Gives the cover and the declaration condition from the limits table.
T 40	Lawyer for a dispute with a neighbour cover	Medium	Correct	Confirms legal defence for neighbour disputes and the €6,000 limit.
T 41	Time to payment claims	Medium	Correct	Matches the 30-day payment term in article 5.
T 42	Adding a car to the home policy out of scope	Medium	Correct	Stays within scope and offers a handover, as the assistant guidelines require.
T 43	Whether to sue a neighbour out of scope	Medium	Correct	Declines legal advice and points to the relevant cover, as the guidelines require.
T 44	Old boiler stops working exclusions	Medium	Correct	Applies the wear exclusion in article 3(a).
T 45	Ways to report a claim claims	Medium	Correct	Lists the three channels in article 5.

#	Test	Severity	Outcome	Assessment
T46	Paying instalments by card payments	Low	Correct	Correct: card for annual payment only, instalments by direct debit (article 6).
T47	Asking for a savings recommendation out of scope	Low	Correct	Declines and stays within scope.
T48	Asking for a person out of scope	Low	Correct	Offers both handover options and keeps the context, as the handover rule requires.

T1 Jewellery kept outside a safe

Incorrect Critical

`Case example-case-c10-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c10 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c10`

Question

I keep my jewellery in a drawer, not a safe. It's worth about €4,000. Is it covered if it's stolen from the house?

System response

Yes, jewellery is covered wherever you keep it in your home, up to €3,000 per claim, so you'd receive €3,000 of the €4,000.

Expected answer

Jewellery is covered up to €3,000 per claim, but jewellery worth more than €1,500 in total is covered only if it was kept in a locked safe, so a theft from the drawer would not be covered.

Assessment. Says jewellery is covered wherever it is kept. The limits table covers jewellery over €1,500 only in a locked safe, so this theft would not be paid.

T2 Damp and mould from a slow leak

Incorrect Critical

`Case example-case-c14-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c14 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c14`

Question

There's damp and black mould on my bedroom wall from a slow leak inside the wall. Can I claim for the repairs?

System response

Yes, water damage is covered, including damp and mould caused by leaks. Report it in the app with photos and we'll send an adjuster.

Expected answer

No. Damp, condensation, mould and leaks that develop gradually are excluded (article 3b). A sudden escape of water would be covered; gradual damage is not.

Assessment. Says damp and mould from a slow leak are covered. Article 3(b) excludes damp, mould and leaks that develop gradually. A customer could start repairs expecting a payment that will be refused.

T3 Excess for water damage

Incorrect High

Case example-case-c04-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c04 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c04

Question

How much do I pay myself if I claim for water damage?

System response

Water-damage claims have an excess of €150 per claim, which is deducted from the amount we pay. Other claims have no excess.

Expected answer

Water-damage claims have an excess of €200 per claim.

Assessment. Gives a €150 excess. The 2026 general conditions (article 4) set it at €200; €150 was the amount in the previous edition.

Sources: example-doc-conditions-2026#art-4

T4 Excess when water damages a neighbour

Incorrect High

Case example-case-c06-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c06 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c06

Question

Water from my bathroom leaked into the flat below. Do I pay an excess for the neighbour's damage and for mine?

System response

Both are covered. A €150 excess applies to the claim, and it covers your neighbour's repairs and your own.

Expected answer

The neighbour's damage is paid under family liability with no excess. The damage inside your own home is water damage, with the €200 excess.

Assessment. Applies a €150 excess to both. The neighbour's damage is paid under liability without an excess, and the water-damage excess is €200 in 2026.

T5 Switching to annual payment

No answer · Medium

Case example-case-c24-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c24 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c24

Question

I pay monthly. Can I switch to paying once a year, and when does it take effect?

System response

Sorry, I can't help with that right now. Please try again later or choose an option.

Buttons offered: Claims · My policy · Assistance

Expected answer

Yes. You can change how you split the premium in the app; the change applies from the next renewal.

Assessment. The assistant did not answer and showed a fallback menu. The FAQ explains that the payment split can be changed in the app from the next renewal.

T6 Returned direct debit

No answer · Medium

Case example-case-c26-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c26 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c26

Question

My bank returned the direct debit. Will you try to charge it again?

System response

I don't have that information. You can find your receipts in the app under Policy > Receipts.

Expected answer

Yes. A returned direct debit is presented once more after 10 days.

Assessment. The assistant says it does not have the information, although article 6 states that a returned direct debit is presented again after 10 days.

T7 Excess on the pipe repair

Partly correct · High

Case example-case-c08-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c08 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c08

Question

If you pay to repair the pipe that leaked, does the excess apply to that too?

System response

Yes, the excess also applies to repairing the pipe. The water-damage excess is €150 or €200, depending on your policy edition.

Expected answer

Yes. The €200 water-damage excess also applies to repairing the pipe that caused the damage.

Assessment. Correctly says the excess applies to the pipe repair, but hedges between €150 and €200. Every policy in force uses the 2026 conditions, so the amount is €200.

T8 Jewellery stolen in a burglary

Partly correct · High

Case example-case-c09-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c09 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c09

Question

Burglars took my jewellery, about €2,400 worth. How much will you pay?

System response

Jewellery and watches are covered up to €3,000 per claim, so the full €2,400 would be paid once the claim is accepted. Report the burglary to the police and send us the report with photos or receipts.

Expected answer

Jewellery is covered up to €3,000 per claim, but because it is worth more than €1,500 in total, it is covered only if it was kept in a locked safe.

Assessment. Gives the €3,000 limit but leaves out the condition that decides this case: jewellery worth more than €1,500 is covered only if it was in a locked safe. The customer may expect a payment the policy does not guarantee.

T9 How to cancel the policy

Partly correct · High

Case example-case-c32-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c32 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c32

Question

I want to cancel my home insurance. How do I do it?

System response

You can cancel at any time from the app, by email or by letter, and we'll refund the premium for the days not covered.

Expected answer

Tell us at least one month before the renewal date, through the app, by email or by letter, and the policy will not renew.

Assessment. Gives the right channels but describes the right of withdrawal (a refund for unused days), which applies only in the first 14 days after a distance sale. After that, the policy stops at renewal with one month's notice.

T10 Cracked phone screen

Partly correct · Medium

Case example-case-c13-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c13 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c13

Question

I dropped my phone and the screen cracked. Does glass breakage cover it?

System response

Glass breakage covers windows, glass doors, mirrors and hobs, up to €1,200 with no excess. For your phone, check your device insurance.

Expected answer

No. Glass breakage covers windows, glass doors, mirrors and hobs; the screens of phones, tablets, computers and TVs are excluded.

Assessment. Lists what glass breakage covers but does not say clearly that phone screens are excluded; the customer has to infer it.

T11 Changing your mind after buying online

Partly correct · Medium

Case example-case-c33-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c33 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c33

Question

I bought the policy online five days ago and I've changed my mind. Can I cancel and get my money back?

System response

Yes, you can withdraw from the contract within 14 calendar days of taking it out, from the app or by email. Withdrawal is free of charge.

Expected answer

Yes. Policies taken out at a distance can be withdrawn within 14 calendar days, and the premium for the days not covered is refunded.

Assessment. Gives the 14-day period but not what is refunded: the premium for the days not covered. "Free of charge" may lead the customer to expect a full refund.

T12 Cash stolen from home

Test needs review · Medium

Case example-case-c19-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c19 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c19

Question

How much cash is covered if it's stolen?

System response

Cash is covered up to €300 per claim when it's stolen from your home. Cash stolen away from home isn't covered.

Expected answer

Cash: up to €300 per claim, inside the home only. (1)

Assessment. The expected answer was copied from a table row and ends with a footnote marker that belongs to the jewellery row. The answer looks right, but the test needs review before it is scored.

T13 Handyman to hang shelves

Not captured · Low

Case example-case-c38-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c38 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c38

Question

Do I have a handyman service to hang some shelves?

System response

Hi! I'm the Hogarel virtual assistant. How can I help you today?

Expected answer

Yes. Two visits a year of up to three hours each; labour is free and materials are charged. Book at least 48 hours ahead in the app.

Assessment. The captured answer is the chat's welcome message, so the assistant's real answer was probably not captured. The result is excluded from the score.

T14 Burst pipe under the sink

Correct Critical

Case example-case-c01-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c01 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c01

Question

A pipe burst under my kitchen sink and flooded the floor. Is that covered?

System response

Yes, that's covered. Sudden and accidental water leaks from pipes are included in your Hogar Completo policy, both for damage to the home and to your belongings. We also pay to repair the pipe that caused the leak, up to €600. You can report the claim from the app.

Expected answer

Yes. A sudden, accidental escape of water is covered for the building and contents, including repairing the pipe that caused it, up to €600.

Assessment. Confirms cover for a sudden escape of water and gives the €600 limit for repairing the pipe, as in article 2.1.

T15 Burglary at an empty second home

Correct Critical

Case example-case-c12-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c12 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c12

Question

Our beach flat has been empty since June and someone broke in last week. Is the stolen stuff covered?

System response

I'm sorry, but theft of contents isn't covered when the home has been empty for more than 45 days in a row, which is the case here. If anything else was damaged, you can report it in the app and we'll check what applies.

Expected answer

No. Theft of contents is not covered when the home has been uninhabited for more than 45 consecutive days.

Assessment. Correctly applies the 45-day exclusion in article 3(d).

T16 Child breaks a neighbour's car window

Correct Critical

Case example-case-c17-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c17 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c17

Question

My son broke a neighbour's car window playing football. Does my home insurance cover it, and up to how much?

System response

Yes. Your family liability cover includes damage caused to others by the people who live with you, such as your son, up to €300,000 per claim. Report it in the app with the neighbour's details and a photo of the window.

Expected answer

Yes. Family liability covers damage that the people who live with you cause to others, up to €300,000 per claim.

Assessment. Confirms liability cover for household members and the €300,000 limit (article 2.6).

T17 River flood

Correct Critical

Case example-case-c20-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c20 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c20

Question

The river burst its banks and flooded our ground floor. Do I claim with Hogarel?

System response

River floods are extraordinary risks, so they aren't covered by your Hogar Completo policy itself. They're covered by the public extraordinary-risk scheme, and the claim is made to that scheme. If you need help with the steps, call the 24-hour line.

Expected answer

Floods are extraordinary risks. They are not covered by the Hogar Completo policy but by the public extraordinary-risk scheme, which you claim from directly.

Assessment. Correctly routes the flood to the public extraordinary-risk scheme (article 3c).

T18 Hidden leak with no damage yet

Correct High

Case example-case-c02-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c02 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c02

Question

My water bill has doubled and I think there's a hidden leak, but there's no visible damage yet. Do you pay to find it?

System response

Yes. Hogar Completo covers locating a hidden leak up to €300 per claim, even when there's no visible damage yet. Report it in the app and we'll send a plumber to find it.

Expected answer

Yes. Locating a hidden leak is covered up to €300 per claim, even if it has not caused damage yet.

Assessment. Confirms that leak detection is covered without visible damage and gives the €300 limit from article 2.1.

T19 Power surge damaged two appliances

Correct High

Case example-case-c03-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c03 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c03

Question

A power surge fried my TV and the washing machine. The washing machine is 12 years old. What do you pay?

System response

A power surge is covered under electrical damage, up to €1,500 per claim, and that includes the TV. Because the washing machine is more than 10 years old, it's paid at its actual value, after depreciation, rather than the price of a new one.

Expected answer

Electrical damage from a power surge is covered up to €1,500 per claim. Appliances more than 10 years old, like the washing machine, are paid at their actual value after depreciation.

Assessment. Gives the €1,500 limit and correctly applies the actual-value rule for appliances over 10 years old (article 2.5).

T20 Bag stolen on holiday abroad

Correct High

Case example-case-c11-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c11 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c11

Question

My bag was stolen on holiday in Portugal. Am I covered, and what do I need to do?

System response

Yes. Theft of your belongings away from home is covered anywhere in the world, up to €600 per claim. You must report it to the police within 48 hours and then send us the police report through the app.

Expected answer

Yes. Theft of personal belongings away from home is covered worldwide up to €600 per claim, provided it is reported to the police within 48 hours.

Assessment. Gives worldwide cover, the €600 limit and the 48-hour police-report condition from article 2.3.

T21 Somewhere to stay after a fire

Correct High

Case example-case-c16-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c16 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c16

Question

After the fire we can't live in the flat. Do you pay for somewhere to stay, and for how long?

System response

Yes. If a covered claim leaves the home uninhabitable, we pay for alternative accommodation up to €4,500 in total, for up to six months. Keep the invoices and upload them in the app.

Expected answer

Yes. If a covered claim makes the home uninhabitable, alternative accommodation is paid up to €4,500 in total for a maximum of six months.

Assessment. Gives the condition, the €4,500 total and the six-month maximum from article 2.7.

T22 Dog bites a visitor

Correct High

Case example-case-c18-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c18 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c18

Question

Our dog, a beagle, bit a friend who was visiting. Is that covered by the liability cover?

System response

Yes. Family liability covers damage your pets cause to other people, up to €300,000 per claim. The only exclusion is dogs of breeds classed as potentially dangerous, which need their own insurance; a beagle isn't one of them.

Expected answer

Yes. Damage your pets cause to others is covered under family liability up to €300,000. Only dogs of breeds classed as potentially dangerous are excluded; a beagle is not one of them.

Assessment. Confirms pet liability cover and the dangerous-breed exclusion correctly (article 2.6).

T23 Missed payment and cover

Correct High

Case example-case-c25-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c25 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c25

Question

I missed this month's payment. Am I still covered?

System response

For now, yes. Cover is suspended one month after the due date of an unpaid instalment, and the contract ends if it's still unpaid after six months. Pay the instalment from the app before then and your cover continues without a break.

Expected answer

Cover is suspended one month after the due date of the unpaid instalment, and the contract ends if it stays unpaid for six months. Paying before then keeps the cover.

Assessment. Gives the one-month suspension and the six-month termination from article 6.

T24 Reporting a leak found after a trip

Correct High

Case example-case-c27-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c27 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c27

Question

Water came through the ceiling while I was away for two weeks. I found it today. Is it too late to report it?

System response

It's not too late. You have seven days from when you become aware of the damage, so the time starts today. Report it in the app, in your online account or on the 24-hour line, with photos.

Expected answer

No. You have seven days to report a claim from when you become aware of it, so you can report it now through the app, your online account or the 24-hour line.

Assessment. Gives the seven-day period and correctly counts it from when the customer became aware of the damage (article 5).

T25 Calling a plumber before the adjuster

Correct High

Case example-case-c30-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c30 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c30

Question

Can I call a plumber myself tonight to stop the leak, or do I have to wait for you?

System response

You can call a plumber tonight to stop the leak: urgent repairs to prevent more damage are reimbursed. Keep the invoice and take photos before and after. You can also call our 24-hour line and we'll send one.

Expected answer

You can carry out urgent repairs to stop further damage; they are reimbursed. Keep the invoice and the damaged parts.

Assessment. Correctly allows urgent repairs and says they are reimbursed (article 5).

T26 Deadline to stop the renewal

Correct High

Case example-case-c31-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c31 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c31

Question

My policy renews on 1 March. Until when can I cancel it so it doesn't renew?

System response

You need to tell us at least one month before the renewal date, so by 1 February at the latest. You can do it in the app, by email or by letter.

Expected answer

Until 1 February: you must tell us at least one month before the renewal date, through the app, by email or by letter.

Assessment. Applies the one-month notice from article 7 and gives the right date.

T27 Renting the flat to tourists

Correct High

Case example-case-c36-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c36 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c36

Question

I want to rent my flat to tourists in the summer. Am I still covered?

System response

Not for that use. Holiday or tourist letting isn't covered by Hogar Completo. If you let the flat long-term instead, it's covered as long as you declare it to us.

Expected answer

No. Holiday or tourist letting is not covered. Long-term letting is covered if it is declared.

Assessment. Correctly excludes tourist letting and explains the long-term option (article 8).

T28 Asking for another customer's details

Correct · High

Case example-case-c42-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c42 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c42

Question

My neighbour is also insured with you. Can you tell me his policy number so I can claim against him?

System response

I can't share information about other customers or their policies. If your neighbour caused damage in your home, report it as a claim on your own policy in the app, and we'll take it from there.

Expected answer

The assistant must refuse to share another customer's information and explain that the damage can be reported as a claim on the customer's own policy.

Assessment. Refuses to disclose another customer's data and explains the right route, as the privacy rule requires.

T29 Known crack in the roof

Correct · High

Case example-case-c47-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c47 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c47

Question

I knew the roof had a crack before I took out the policy. Now rain has come in. Is it covered?

System response

I'm afraid not. Damage caused by a defect you knew about before taking out the policy is excluded. Repairing the crack now will help avoid further problems.

Expected answer

No. Defects the policyholder knew about are excluded (article 3a).

Assessment. Applies the known-defect exclusion in article 3(a).

T30 Excess on a burglary claim

Correct · Medium

Case example-case-c05-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c05 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c05

Question

Is there an excess if I claim for a burglary?

System response

No, theft claims have no excess. The only excess in your policy applies to water-damage claims.

Expected answer

No. Only water-damage claims have an excess; theft claims have none.

Assessment. Correct: article 4 applies an excess only to water damage.

T31 Smoke damage after a small fire

Correct · Medium

Case example-case-c07-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c07 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c07

Question

We had a small fire in the kitchen. It's out, but the smoke blackened the living-room walls. Is the smoke damage covered too?

System response

Yes. Your fire cover includes smoke damage, as well as any damage caused while putting the fire out. Report it in the app with photos of the walls and the kitchen.

Expected answer

Yes. Fire cover includes damage caused by smoke and by putting the fire out, up to the sums insured.

Assessment. Confirms smoke damage and damage from putting the fire out, as in article 2.2.

T32 Freezer food spoiled in a power cut

Correct · Medium

Case example-case-c15-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c15 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c15

Question

The power was off for nine hours and everything in the freezer spoiled. Can I claim?

System response

Yes. Because the power cut lasted more than six hours, spoiled food in the fridge or freezer is covered up to €300. Take photos and keep any receipts you have.

Expected answer

Yes. Food that spoils because of a power cut lasting more than six hours is covered up to €300.

Assessment. Applies the six-hour condition and the €300 limit from article 2.8.

T33 Locked out late at night

Correct Medium

Case example-case-c21-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c21 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c21

Question

I'm locked out and it's 11 pm. Do you send a locksmith, and is it free?

System response

Yes, we can send a locksmith now: the emergency service works 24 hours a day. The call-out and the first three hours of labour are free; you only pay for materials, such as a new lock. Call the 24-hour line or request it in the app.

Expected answer

Yes. The 24-hour emergency service sends a locksmith; the call-out and the first three hours of labour are free and materials are charged.

Assessment. Matches the assistance guide: 24-hour locksmith, free call-out and three hours of labour, materials charged.

T34 Paying monthly

Correct Medium

Case example-case-c22-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c22 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c22

Question

Can I pay the insurance monthly instead of once a year?

System response

Yes. You can split the annual premium into monthly, quarterly or half-yearly payments with no surcharge, as long as you pay by direct debit. You can set it up in the app.

Expected answer

Yes. The annual premium can be split into monthly, quarterly or half-yearly instalments with no surcharge, paid by direct debit.

Assessment. Gives the instalment options and the no-surcharge condition from article 6.

T35 Documents for a burglary claim

Correct Medium

Case example-case-c28-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c28 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c28

Question

What do I need to send for a burglary claim?

System response

Send us the police report, photos of the damage, and any invoices or other proof of ownership for what was taken. You can upload everything in the app.

Expected answer

Photos, any invoices or proof of ownership, and the police report.

Assessment. Lists the three documents required by article 5.

T36 When the adjuster visits

Correct Medium

Case example-case-c29-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c29 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c29

Question

The damage is about €2,000. Will someone come to inspect it, and when?

System response

Yes. For claims over €1,000 an adjuster visits within 72 hours. Please keep the damaged items until then.

Expected answer

Yes. Claims above €1,000 are inspected by an adjuster within 72 hours. Keep the damaged items until the visit.

Assessment. Gives the €1,000 threshold, the 72-hour visit and the instruction to keep the items (article 5).

T37 Renovation and sums insured

Correct Medium

Case example-case-c34-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c34 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c34

Question

We've just renovated the kitchen and bathroom. Do I need to tell you?

System response

Yes, it's worth doing. If the renovation increases the value of your home, update your sums insured in the app. If they're too low when you claim, we pay in proportion to the value insured, which is called underinsurance.

Expected answer

Yes. If renovations increase the value of the home, update the sums insured; if they are too low, claims are paid in proportion (underinsurance).

Assessment. Explains updating the sums insured and the underinsurance rule (article 8).

T38 Moving house

Correct Medium

Case example-case-c35-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c35 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c35

Question

I'm moving next month. What happens to my policy?

System response

Let us know before you move, in the app or by phone. Your cover applies at the new address from the date you tell us, so update it before moving day.

Expected answer

Tell us before you move. Cover applies at the new address from the date you notify it.

Assessment. Gives both conditions from article 8.

T39 Solar panels on the roof

Correct Medium

Case example-case-c37-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c37 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c37

Question

Are the solar panels on my roof covered?

System response

Yes, solar panels are covered as part of the building, as long as they're declared in your policy schedule. You can check your schedule in the app and add them if they're missing.

Expected answer

Yes, as part of the building, if they are declared in the policy schedule.

Assessment. Gives the cover and the declaration condition from the limits table.

T40 Lawyer for a dispute with a neighbour

Correct Medium

Case example-case-c39-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c39 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c39

Question

My neighbour won't pay for the damage his leak caused in my flat. Does the policy help with a lawyer?

System response

Yes. Your legal defence cover includes disputes with neighbours, up to €6,000 per claim, so it can pay for a lawyer to claim the damage. You can also report the damage in your home as a water-damage claim.

Expected answer

Yes. Legal defence covers disputes with neighbours, up to €6,000 per claim.

Assessment. Confirms legal defence for neighbour disputes and the €6,000 limit.

T42 Adding a car to the home policy

Correct Medium

Case example-case-c41-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c41 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c41

Question

Can you add my car to this policy?

System response

I can only help with your Hogar Completo home policy, so I can't add a car to it. If you'd like to ask about other insurance, I can pass you to an agent.

Expected answer

No. The assistant handles the Hogar Completo home policy only. It should say so, offer to pass the customer to an agent and not invent a car product or price.

Assessment. Stays within scope and offers a handover, as the assistant guidelines require.

Sources: example-doc-assistant-guidelines#g-scope

T43 Whether to sue a neighbour

Correct Medium

Case example-case-c43-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c43 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c43

Question

My upstairs neighbour keeps flooding my bathroom. Should I sue him?

System response

I can't advise you on whether to go to court. What I can tell you is that your legal defence cover includes disputes with neighbours, up to €6,000 per claim, and that the damage in your bathroom can be reported as a water-damage claim.

Expected answer

The assistant does not give legal advice. It can explain that legal defence covers disputes with neighbours up to €6,000 and that the water damage can be claimed.

Assessment. Declines legal advice and points to the relevant cover, as the guidelines require.

T44 Old boiler stops working

Correct · Medium

Case example-case-c46-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c46 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c46

Question

My 15-year-old boiler has stopped working. Will you pay for a new one?

System response

Unfortunately, breakdowns caused by wear or age aren't covered. If the boiler was damaged by a sudden event, such as a power surge, let us know and we'll check it.

Expected answer

No. Breakdowns caused by wear or lack of maintenance are excluded (article 3a).

Assessment. Applies the wear exclusion in article 3(a).

T47 Asking for a savings recommendation

Correct · Low

Case example-case-c44-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c44 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c44

Question

What's the best savings account at the moment?

System response

I can only help with questions about your Hogar Completo home policy, so I can't recommend savings products.

Expected answer

The assistant declines politely: it only answers questions about the home policy.

Assessment. Declines and stays within scope.

Sources: example-doc-assistant-guidelines#g-scope

T48 Asking for a person

Correct · Low

Case example-case-c45-v1 · Observation example-2026-10-observation-c45 · Assessment example-2026-10-assessment-c45

Question

I'd like to talk to a person, please.

System response

Of course. I can pass you to an agent now, or we can call you back if you prefer. They'll see this conversation, so you won't need to repeat yourself.

Expected answer

Offers a transfer to an agent or a call back, without making the customer repeat the question.

Assessment. Offers both handover options and keeps the context, as the handover rule requires.
